MYSTERY OF A DIAMOND RING.

Three well-dressed women, who described themselves as Mrs. Agnes Burroughs of 122 west Eighty third street, Mrs. Dorotby Hunn of 118 west Eightieth street, and Mrs. Tina Coolidge of 167 west Eighty-first street, and a man named Thomas Gables, living at 118 west Eighty-third street, were before Magistrate Meade in the Centre Street Poice Court yesterday as the result of a dispute over the loss of a diamond ring, the property of Mrs. Burroughs, who charged the other women with sessing it. Gables and the Hunn and Coolidge women were arrested on Saturday in the Empire Cafe in Columbus svenne, between Eighty second and Eighty-third streets, where the dispute took place, by Detective Sergeants Vallely and Milburn, and taken to Police Headquarters, where they passed the night.

Mrs. Burroughs, according to her story, dropped in at the cafe on Satur-day atternoon to get a sandwich and a cup of coffee and was invited by Mrs. Hunn to sit at a table with herself and her friends. When she took off her gloves Mrs. Hunn expressed admiration for one of her rings, a diamond and emerald in a peculiar setting, which she valued at $500. She took off the ring and handed it to the Hunn woman, who, after trying it on and holding it in different lights, began to talk at something else, and gradually lowered her hand until it was beneath the table. A few minutes later, according to Mrs. Burroughs, the Coolidge woman left the place in a hurry.

When Mrs. Burroughs asked the Hunn woman for the ring she said she had already given it back. Mrs. Burroughs made a thorough search but failed to find the rior, so she complained to the proprietor, who called up police headquarters and had detectives sent to the cafe at once. They searched Gables and the two women, but failed to find the ring. A messenger was sent for the Coolidge woman, and when she returned to the cafe, on Mrs. Burrough's complaint Gables and the two women were arrested.

In court Mrs. Burroughs said that she did not suspect Gables of being imwhile teething, with perfect has the child, softens the gums, cures wind colle, and is the was discharged. The two women, dewas discharged. The two women, despite tearful protestations, were held each in $1,000 bail for examination. Io default of bail they were locked up in

> TRAGEDY ON BOARD A VESSEL .- The schooner Passadena, at Newport News, was yesterday the scene of a dread ul tragedy, when James Clark, a West Indian negro, was stabbed to death, it is alleged, by Audrew D. Drayton, also a native of the West Indies. The crime was perpetrated with a large pocket-knife. It is said that Drayton stabbed the man in the forecastle of the ves-el. Clark ran to the captain's cabin and fell down at the door. All he said was: "On, Captain!" The blade of the knife is said to have pierced his heart. Drayton was brought ashore by Police Sergeant Reynolds and is in the city > jail. The matter was turned over to the Warwick county court, as the tragedy occurred outside of the jurisdiction of Newport News.

A TYPELESS NEWSPAPER .- A typeless newspaper has just been produced in Brussels. The compositors of the wide-sold paper Petit Bleu had struck. The news, accompanying sixteen pages of illustrations, was set on a typewriter. Then the single typewritten sheets and the pictures were pasted on sheets of ardboard larger than the size of the newspaper. Then the whole was re-duced by photography to the actual size. A print was made from the negative on a sensitized sneet of zinc instrations were etched in, and the re-sult was a complete, solid form ready for the press.

RICHES FROM A JILTED LOVER .- Miss Jennie Hancock, a nurse, of No. 2111 Belmore street, has received a letter from Berlin, Germany, stating that George Richtman, a lawyer, who for a short time lived in Philadelphia, recently died there and bequeathed to her $92,000. Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worse form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully im-proved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleep lessness, melaucholy, headache, back-ache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working machine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cts. Sold by E. L. Allen and E. S. Lead-
